

U.S. Embassy Almaty
Consular Section
Information Message

The following is a message distributed through the Consular Warden System of U.S. Embassy Almaty.

In 2006, there will be primary elections in all states and a general election on November 7, 2006. At stake are all seats in the U. S. House of Representatives, one-third of the U. S. Senate, and a number of state and local initiatives. Voters who register early in the year will be able to participate in the primary as well as the general elections.

In order to vote and apply for an absentee ballot you can visit the Consular section of the U. S. Embassy in Almaty, located at 97 Zholdasbekov St., Samal-2, 17th floor, any Tuesday or Thursday between 2 and 4pm, obtain a Federal Post Card Application (FPCA) and your state's registration and voting instructions, complete the form legibly, and mail it to your local election officials.

Extensive information about absentee registration and voting appears on the Federal Voting Assistance Program's (FVAP) websites at www.fvap.ncr.gov or www.fvap.gov.